IN THE SUPREME COURT OF MINNESOTA.

STATE OF MINNESOTA } } VS } RAPE.
MAX MASON }

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION.

R. C. McCullough, first being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is one of the attorneys of record in the above intitled cause, and so representing the defendant, Max Mason, this affiant says, that the defendant, Max Mason, is a poor person and has no money or means to supply the printed record and brief in the above entitled cause, and that he is compelled to rely upon the charity of friends who have undertaken to supply funds for the printing of said record and brief. That thru the kindness of persons interested in this cause, the transcript of record has been supplied at a cost of nearly Four Hundred ($400.00) Dollars, and that a small sum of money less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars is available at the date hereof to pay for printed record and brief, which sum is insufficient to pay all the expenses for printing the brief and record in apt time for the presentation of said cause in the Supreme Court, which costs of printing same is estimated to be about Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars or more.

This affiant further says, that F. L. Barnett of Chicago is associated in the presentation of defendant's Appeal in the Supreme Court, and that counsel in this cause will apply all the money received first to the printing of the brief, so that the same may be presented to the Supreme Court at the earliest possible time, but this affiant believes that the expenses cannot be met in a less time than Thirty (30) days from date.

Wherefore affiant presents herewith a motion to extend the time for filing the printed brief in the above cause for a period of Thirty (30) days and that the ORIGINAL TYPEWRITTEN RECORDS now on file be allowed to be used for the presentation of defendant's Appeal in the Supreme Court, and supporting same and in connection with said motion attaches hereto, a stipulation signed by Warren E. Greene, County Attorney of Saint Louis County, who prosecuted said cause.

No. 22590 (State of Minnesota vs. Max Mason), 1921-1922.

And further affiant sayeth not.
