Dear Madam:

Replying to your inquiry, I have known Carl Hammerberg about two years, and have been in his company occasionally during that period, to the best of my knowledge he has also accompanied me to Church. He has always conducted himself in a perfectly gentle-manner, manly, when with me, and not at all erratic.

In the contrary his disposition seemed to me to be decidedly peaceable and agreeable nature, I have never known him to be otherwise.

Yours very truly,

Esther Larson
