

Minnesota State Prison (Stillwater, Minn.) [Stillwater State Prison].
Louis Dondino: Case No. 6614.
Case Files. 1921-1923.
Letter from A. W. [illegible] to J. J. Sullivan, February 18, 1922.

1

Form 764 8-22-21 100M

CHICAGO, ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS & OMAHA RY. CO.

6614

Bennett, Wis.
Feb, 18th. 1922.

Mr. J.J.Sullivan.,
Warden Minn State Prison.
Stillwater, Minn.
Dear Sir:-

I am writing you in regard to Mr Louis Dondino who is now serving a term in your prison. I understand Mr Dondino's case may be considered by the Parole Board in the near future, and in this connection I simply desire to put in a good word for Mr Dondino, and trust that his case may be favorable acted upon when it comes up for consideration. I have personally known Mr Dondino for over twelve years, and while he may have made a mistake which he is now suffering from, I feel that he has already received his lesson and have no doubt but that he will conduct himself as a good law abiding citizen hereafter, and with the exception of this one act which has been charged against him, I have allways known him to be a good honest and hardworking man.

I also feel very sorry for his old parents. They are very old and of course, they feel it very hard. I dont think either one of them will live very long knowing their son to be in Prison. I sincerely trust that the Parole Board may favorable consider Mr Dondino's application in order that it may lift the shadow of sorrow from his old Parents and that they may enjoy the rest of the days of their life in peace and happiness.

Thanking you for your kind consideration of this letter. I beg to remain.

Very respectfully,

Station Agent.